Frente Revolucionario Democrático (FRD), which according to the New York file on the FRD, [was being sponsored by the CIA.] (u)

On the list furnished August 3, 1960, GOMEZ included information set out under the heading, "List of Members of the July 26 in Bridgeport, Connecticut." Number 5 on this list was "ABELARDO BORJA, at present in Miami Fla. Spies on the Anti Castristas in order to report them to G-2."

On November 31, 1960, per New York letter to Bureau December 13, 1960, GOMEZ was interviewed by Special Agents CURRAN and SAMPLE, and in discussing the list of August 3, 1960, GOMEZ pointed out that the information which he had furnished to the FBI had been made available to the FRD by various individuals, some anonymous and that he passed on the information in the state in which he received it. He pointed out that he was unable to determine the source of the information in each instance, and had no way of verifying the majority of the data. He said that he realized that some of the sources were not always accurate; however, they were motivated by their dislike of CASTRO and his activities.

DETAILS:

Instant investigation was instituted as a result of the receipt of information furnished by Dr. ORLANDO GOMEZ GIL, August 3, 1960, to Special Agents JOHN FRANCIS CURRAN and MALCOLM E. SAMPLE, at New York, New York, to the effect that the subject had been reported to him by sources which he did not identify, but felt were reliable, as a person who at that time was in Miami, Florida, engaged in spying on anti-CASTRO individuals in order to report them to G-2 (the Cuban Military Intelligence Organization.)

GOMEZ described himself as an attorney of Cuban nationality with resident status in the United States, who was working closely with the Frente Revolucionario Democratico (FRD), which he stated was an organization of individuals opposed to the regime of Cuban Premier FIDEL CASTRO.

On March 1, 1960, FRANCISCO RODRIGUEZ TAMAYO, 534 S. W. 13th Avenue, Miami, advised Special Agent ROBERT JAMES DWYER that ABELARDO BORJA, 216 Flagler Avenue (Street), Apartment 14, telephone FR 1-4600, is also known as JORGE SIMON and was "suspected" by "many anti-CASTRO people" (unnamed) of being a DIER agent (Department of Investigations of the Revolutionary Army of Cuba.)

On October 12, 1960, and November 16, 1960, JOSE PAZ NOVAS, 2709 East 7th Avenue, Hialeah, Florida, self-admitted G-2 (Cuban Military Intelligence) agent in the Miami area, advised that he did not know and had not heard of the subject, and knew of no one by that name employed by the Cuban Government. PAZ explained that it was not uncommon for anyone making a non-specific allegation that someone was a "Cuban agent" to have referred to that person as a "DIER" agent, as at one time, DIER was a publicly known investigative agency of the Cuban Government. PAZ explained, however, that the Cuban G-2 was the overall Cuban intelligence directorate. PAZ claimed to have been in charge of G-2 activities in the Miami area until April of 1960.

On January 25, 1961, OSCAR RAMIREZ, 1714 N. W. 3rd Street, former head of the Department of Tourism, Government of Cuba, and ex-employee of the Cuban Consulate, Miami, advised that he did not know the subject, and had heard nothing concerning him.
